

School-Wide Behavioral Expectations

Use appropriate language for school.

- No swearing.
- No discussing inappropriate topics.

Respect the rights of those around you to learn and listen.

- No distracting classroom outbursts.
- Control the volume of your voice.
- Follow teacher policy for class participation.

Be polite to teachers and staff.

- Do what is asked of you without argument.
- Communicate problems or issues calmly and politely.

Stay awake and alert.

- Do not put your head down.
- No sleeping in class.

A student whose behavior is not meeting these expectations will receive two warnings in a class period and will then be removed from the classroom for the remainder of the class period.
